

How to find us – Locations, maps and signposts

The Federal Institute for Risk Assessment (BfR) has two locations in Berlin. Its headquarters are in Dahlem, Thielallee 88-92, the second location is in Berlin-Marienfelde, Diedersdorfer Weg 1.

The buses X11 and 111 travel to the two locations. How to get:

from Dahlem to Marienfelde

- Leave the main entrance of BfR on Thielallee and head for the crossroads "Thielallee/Unter den Eichen"
- On the opposite side of the street, to the right of the crossroads, either take bus 148 direction "Tiergarten/Philharmonie" or bus 101 direction "Turmstraße"
- Continue for two stops to the crossroads "Unter den Eichen/Drakestraße".
- If you have taken bus 148, cross over the road "Unter den Eichen" before you reach the crossroads. On Drakestraße take bus X11 (direction S Schöneweide/Sterndamm) or 111 (direction Marienfelde) and get off at the stop "Nahmitzer Damm/Marienfelder Allee",
- If you have taken bus 101, cross over "Drakestraße" at the bus stop and take bus X11 (direction S Schöneweide/Sterndamm) or bus 111 (direction Marienfelde) and get off at the stop "Nahmitzer Damm/Marienfelder Allee".
- From here the footpath to BfR is signposted.
