Berlin offers an enormous cultural programme: three opera houses, over 150 theatres and playhouses and over 170 museums and collections.

In the following we would like to introduce some shows and concerts that might be worth visiting while you are in Berlin:

Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra

The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra has for many years been one of the premier orchestras of the world. After such famous names like Wilhelm Furtwängler or Herbert von Karajan now Sir Simon Rattle is the chief conductor.

Friedrichstadtpalast

The Friedrichstadtpalast is the largest revue theatre in Europe. Stars like Marlene Dietrich, Ella Fitzgerald or Louis Armstrong have performed on this legendary stage. Today's shows present a combination of artists, traditional revue and the latest in high tech.

Wintergarten Varieté

The Wintergarten is a variety theatre that stages four to five different shows every year. The variety artists come from all over the world and perform numerous different arts: Contortionists, jugglers, trapeze artists, dancing partners, comedians, parodists, magicians and clowns.

Blue Man Group

The Blue Man Group is a creative team of artists that presents theatrical shows and concerts which combine music, comedy and multimedia theatrics to produce a totally unique form of entertainment. Currently, their live stage shows can be seen in New York, Boston, Chicago, Las Vegas, Orlando, Oberhausen, and in Berlin, of course.

Mamma Mia

Mamma Mia is a Musical comedy with the Songs of the Swedish band ABBA. The story is about a young girl's wedding and her mother confronting her past.

Furthermore Berlin offers a large variety on concerts, ballets, operas or theatres. If you are interested in visiting one of the above mentioned shows or any other performances, please contact the Estrel concierge service:
